

NEWS RELEASE

September 18, 2009

CONTACT

Kelly Pruitt
Public Relations Specialist
804-236-3631

Virginia Department of Aviation (DOAV) and AOPA Air Safety Foundation (ASF) present fall safety seminars

The Virginia Department of Aviation and AOPA Air Safety Foundation will present safety seminars entitled "What Went Wrong" at four locations across the Commonwealth of Virginia Oct. 5-8 from 7-9 p.m.

Kurt Reesman, an aviation professor at Liberty University's School of Aeronautics, is the featured speaker.

The following dates and locations are:

Oct. 5

Virginia Tech Airport
1601 Tech Center Drive
Blacksburg, Virginia 24060
(540) 231-4444
<http://vtmea.newcitymedia.com/contact.html>

Oct. 7

Virginia Aviation Museum
Richmond International Airport
5701 Huntsman Road
Richmond, Virginia 23250
(804) 236-3622
<http://www.vam.smv.org/visit/default.asp>

Oct. 6

Danville Regional Airport
General Aviation
424 Airport Drive
Danville, Virginia 24540
(434) 793-7033
<http://www.flydanville.com/default.htm>

Oct. 8

Virginia Air & Space Center
600 Settlers Landing Road
Hampton, Virginia 23669
(757) 727-0900
<http://www.vasc.org/visitvasc/directions.html>

The AOPA Air Safety Foundation, founded in 1950, is dedicated to making flying easier and safer for general aviation pilots. (www.aopa.org/asf/index.html).

The Virginia Department of Aviation continually strives to become the standard of excellence amongst State Aviation Agencies through; its cultivation of an advanced aviation system, a system that is not only safe for consumers, but one that will provide economic development opportunities throughout the Commonwealth; its promotion and education of aviation and aviation related issues, subsequently raising aviation awareness in the Commonwealth and beyond; and by providing executive flight services for the Commonwealth leadership.

#